What the Marine Corps Taught Me about Christianity

Dennis is a team member and leader with York CBMC. Three weeks after graduating from Cocalico High School in 1964, he was on a plane headed for Parris Island, SC. Dennis served with the First and Third Marine Divisions as an infantryman in Vietnam from August 1965 through September 1966. Since 1998 Dennis has operated his own independent health insurance agency.

Life produces unexpected pivotal moments. One of those moments occurred as Dennis was reading Paul's Letter to Ephesians which asserts we need to be good soldiers for Christ. Dennis asked himself , "Am I as good a soldier for Christ as I was a Marine?" The answer stopped him in his tracks ; the truthful answer was "No!" It was at this point Dennis became more purposeful in his faith walk. As he studied further, he realized many of the qualities that make a good Marine also make good a soldier for Christ .

Please join us to find out what the Marine Corps taught Dennis about his Christian journey.
